

Biographical Notice

Honorary Consul of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg in Ukraine

Mykola M. Novikov

Born in Kyiv on 1966

1973 - 1983 High school №78, Kyiv

1983 – 1988 Mr. Novikov has an honors degree engineer - economist Kiev Institute of Civil Aviation (formerly "KIIGA", now "National Aviation University of Ukraine").

1993-2005 Mr. Novikov was representing Bankgesellschaft Berlin AG (formerly Berliner Bank AG) in Ukraine. His principal responsibilities were representing the bank`s interests in Ukraine, provision of credit and financial services for bank`s clients operating in Ukraine.

1993-2001 Mr. Novikov was Senior Regional Representative of GML International Limited, UK based financial boutique. In 1998 due to the considerable personal contribution of Mr. Novikov the referenced company successfully advised to "SBC Warburg Dillon Read" in issue of 500 Mn Euro 14,75% Notes for Ukraine.

1995-1997 worked as a First Deputy Chairman of Ukgazprombank, Kyiv, Ukraine.

In February 1999 Mr. Novikov was appointed by the Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg as an Honorary Consul of Luxembourg in Ukraine. He is involved with promoting trade, economic, financial and cultural relationship between Luxembourg and Ukraine.

In June 2015 Mr. Novikov was awarded the Order of the Oak Crown of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

In 2002-2003 Mr. Novikov was acting as a non-staff Advisor to the Minister of Economy and European Integration of Ukraine.

Mr. Novikov is in excellent personal contacts with the European financial and political elite and has well developed relationship with with major European banks, especially in the United Kingdom, Germany and Luxembourg.

Since 2011 Mykola Novikov holds the position of Director General of "EFT Ukraine", one of the largest European companies in the field of energy trading.